SEPTEMBER READ - TO - ME

You or your child should write down the titles of any books you read together or books your child reads to you. Include your child's library book, books from book orders, any little books we make and practice in school or your own books at home.

Record your child's "Buddy Book" titles on the other side of this form.

Place an asterisk * next to the title of any book your child reads to you.

Keep this form in your child's "Buddy Book" baggie and return it to school every day.

A large outline of an apple with a stem and leaf. The stem and leaf are at the top. The leaf has three horizontal lines. The main body of the apple is filled with horizontal lines for writing.
